High Street South | Stewkley Buckinghamshire | LU7 0HR Offers In Excess Of £1,250,000

Welcome to Manor House – a truly exceptional Grade II listed residence nestled in the heart of Stewkley’s conservation area. This striking former farmhouse dates back to the late 16th century, with 19th-century enhancements that complement its rich heritage. With a beautifully and sympathetically preserved Tudor façade, the property exudes historical importance and architectural elegance. Behind the iconic herringbone brickwork and dark timber framing lies a home that masterfully balances period charm with modern family living.

Set within a generous 0.63-acre plot and boasting over 4,700 sq ft of internal accommodation, Manor House features six bedrooms, three reception rooms, and a stunning open-plan kitchen and dining area—ideal for both daily life and entertaining. Original features abound, from moulded cross beams and ornate fireplaces to leaded windows and diagonally-set chimney stacks, all thoughtfully restored to preserve the home’s unique character. Sitting behind a mature brick wall, with beautifully landscaped gardens and a triple garage this is a rare opportunity to own a distinguished slice of English history in a thriving village setting.
