Welcome to Tudor Cottage

This charming period property situated along a quiet lane enjoys a striking frontage with classic Tudor-style timber framing and whitewashed walls, exuding timeless character and curb appeal. Set behind an attractive brick wall and mature hedging, the home offers a sense of privacy. A wrought-iron gate opens onto a pathway leading to a welcoming porch. The property also benefits from a gravel driveway with double timber gates, providing secure off-road parking, and a well-maintained front garden filled with established shrubs and greenery.

Entrance Hall

You are welcomed into this beautiful family home into the welcoming entrance hall. From here you have doors leading to the study, utility room, cloakroom and living room.

Study

12'7" x 8'7" (3.86 x 2.62)

The study is a practical space with exposed brick walls, timber beams, and a leaded window overlooking the rear garden. It is currently set up as a home office with room for a desk and storage, and could also be used as a hobby or reading room or even a downstairs bathroom if required.

Living Room

16'2" x 14'10" (4.93 x 4.54)

The living room is a spacious room with exposed ceiling and wall beams, and a feature inglenook fireplace with a wood-burning stove set on a brick hearth. The room has windows to the front and rear, allowing in plenty of natural light, and offers ample space for seating and storage. It provides a comfortable central living space with a traditional feel and attractive period features.

Dining Room

17'6" x 16'2" (5.34 x 4.93)

The dining room is a generous and welcoming space with exposed beams, a large feature fireplace, and tiled flooring. Windows to the front and rear provide natural light, and there is ample space for a family dining table and additional furniture. The room links directly to the kitchen, making it a practical area for both everyday meals and entertaining, while retaining the home's period character. There is also a second set of stairs providing access to the first floor.

Kitchen Breakfast Room

21'0" x 11'10" (6.42 x 3.61)

The kitchen is part of a recently built extension that adds valuable living space to the home. It is a bright, practical room designed for cooking and entertaining, with wooden cabinetry, granite worktops, a Belfast sink, and a range-style cooker with a stainless steel splashback and extractor. A vaulted ceiling with exposed beams and tiled flooring gives the space character, while glazed doors open directly onto the garden. There is also a dining area, making this an ideal setting for family meals and social gatherings. A large breakfast bar is perfect for family living.

Utility Room

The utility room offers space for laundry appliances and additional storage, with shelving and units providing room for household items. There is also plumbing for a washing machine and tumble dryer.

Downstairs Cloakroom

Landing

The landing features exposed beams and a window overlooking the garden, creating a light and characterful space. From here, there is access to all five bedrooms and the family bathroom.

Bedroom One

16'1" x 14'10" (4.92 x 4.54)

Bedroom one is a spacious double room with exposed beams and a window overlooking the garden. The room offers plenty of space for furniture and features period character, making it a comfortable main bedroom.

Bedroom Two

14'3" x 7'8" (4.35 x 2.35)

Bedroom two is a well-sized double room with a window to the front, allowing in plenty of natural light. It has character features including exposed brickwork and provides enough space for a bed and storage, making it a comfortable and versatile bedroom.

Bathroom

Bedrooms one and two are connected by a Jack and Jill bathroom, which includes a bathtub, wash basin, and low level WC.

Bedroom Three

12'5" x 8'9" (3.81 x 2.67)
