Description

A cosy character cottage nestled in the heart of Scarborough’s historic Old Town, offered for sale with no forward chain. Enjoying a charming setting close to Scarborough Castle and offering glimpses of the sea, this delightful home is perfectly suited to first-time buyers, couples, or second-home purchasers/investors alike. The accommodation comprises; entrance door to lounge with cosy log burner, dining/kitchen with built in oven, utility toom leading to rear entrance door and downstairs bathroom. On the first floor are two double bedrooms with rear room offering sea views. There is also an enclosed rear courtyard. Ideally positioned near the well-known Spreight Lane Steps, which link St Mary’s Church and the Castle with the Old Town below, the property is surrounded by local history, scenic walks and coastal attractions, all within easy reach of the town centre and seafront. A rare opportunity to acquire a characterful cottage in one of Scarborough’s most sought-after and atmospheric locations.
