Description

This delightful detached bungalow is a true gem, offering beautifully designed accommodation with a host of bespoke features. Oak flooring flows, complementing the stylish fitted kitchen, complete with sleek granite work surfaces. The spacious sitting room, enhanced by a grand wood burner, leads into a light-filled sunroom, creating a welcoming and warm atmosphere. Set in the picturesque village of Burniston, just four miles north of Scarborough, this two-bedroom home provides a peaceful retreat with plenty of space. The layout includes a welcoming entrance porch, hallway, a well-appointed kitchen with dining area, utility room, a second bedroom, a modern bathroom, a master bedroom, and a shower room. Outside, the property offers an enclosed patio garden at the rear, with access to a garage and a handy wood store. There's also a courtyard with a versatile workshop, ideal for an office or studio. The front of the property features a generous driveway, front garden, and a charming retaining stone wall, adding to the home's curb appeal. There are also solar panels included with the property. Simply put, this is a gorgeous home that offers both elegance and practicality in a sought after location. OFFERED WITH NO
