Description
Located within the heart of Scarborough’s historic Old Town, this impressive period townhouse offers spacious and versatile accommodation arranged over multiple floors, making it ideal for family living, multi-generational use, or investment purposes. The property reflects the architectural heritage of the area while providing generous room sizes throughout. The accommodation begins on the ground floor with a welcoming entrance hall leading to a comfortable living room and a well-proportioned kitchen/diner, complemented by additional practical spaces including a workshop and store, offering excellent flexibility for hobbies, home working or storage. The upper floors reveal a substantial layout comprising five bedrooms arranged across the first, second and third floors, alongside a shower room, bathroom, separate W.C. and a useful laundry room, ensuring practicality for modern living. To the rear, the property benefits from an enclosed courtyard, providing a private outdoor space to enjoy. The layout and scale of the accommodation lend themselves well to a variety of uses, whether as a large family home, guest accommodation, or a potential holiday let. Perfectly positioned close to Scarborough
