Description
Offered to the market with NO ONWARD CHAIN and competitively priced for a quick sale, this well-presented two double bedroom Victorian terraced home offers spacious accommodation arranged over three floors, together with a private enclosed rear courtyard. Ideally situated within just a 10-minute walk of Scarborough town centre, the property is perfectly suited to first-time buyers or buy-to-let investors. The accommodation briefly comprises a welcoming entrance hallway, a bright bay-fronted lounge, a separate dining room with useful understairs storage, and a generously sized galley kitchen with direct access to the enclosed rear courtyard. To the first floor is a spacious double bedroom, a family bathroom fitted with a white suite, and a useful storage room. The second floor provides a further generous double bedroom with a skylight and a spacious landing area, which could be utilised as a study or additional storage space. The property also benefits from UPVC double glazing and gas central heating throughout. With an anticipated gross rental income of approximately £785 per calendar month, this property represents an excellent
