Description

You can enjoy an ever changing view from this first floor apartment which looks out over the front courtyard parking area and the historic Mount building which houses the Wellness Centre with pool & spa. Located opposite the lift you can easily pop down to reception and enjoy some company in the resident's restaurant, cafe and bar or take part in one of the organised activities.

The hallway has a useful storage cupboard housing the meters, Anchor selects utilities centrally for the benefit of all residents and you'd receive a monthly statement showing your consumption for water, gas for the underfloor heating and electricity, to be paid by monthly direct debit.

The living room is south facing, so lovely and warm and bright, with glazed double doors to the compact kitchen which has integrated appliances including; washer/dryer, fridge with freezer compartment, combination oven and two ring induction hob.

The bedroom also enjoys a southerly aspect and has fitted triple wardrobes giving excellent storage. The shower room is situated off the bedroom and has fitted storage, a vanity wash basin, low level wc with concealed cistern and a walk in shower.
