18 Otley Mount

East Morton, Keighley, BD20 5TD

Offers Over £295,000

A lovely family home that's bigger inside than it looks from the outside, sitting in the popular village of East Morton.

The layout is practical and flexible - the kind of setup that works well for families or anyone who needs a bedroom on the ground floor. Downstairs you've got a living room, dining room, dining kitchen and a bedroom, with two more bedrooms and the family bathroom upstairs.

The house has gas central heating and double glazing throughout.

Out front, a tarmac driveway gives you off-road parking for a couple of cars and leads to an integral garage. Head around the side and you'll find what's easily one of the best things about this property: a generous, mature garden that has something for everyone. Most of it is laid to lawn, with a bark-chipped area that's perfect for kids, a decked seating area where you can actually enjoy a summer evening, and a tiered patio with steps leading up to a more tucked-away section of the garden. Mature trees and established shrubs give it a real sense of privacy with views across to the neighbouring fields - it's the sort of garden that feels like a proper retreat, whether you're into growing things, watching the kids run around, or having people over.

East Morton is a well-loved village on the hillside of the Aire Valley, sitting between Bingley and Keighley. It has a genuine community feel - stone cottages, St Luke's Church, the Village Institute, the Busfield Arms pub and a well-regarded primary school all contribute to that. You're also well placed for countryside walks, the Leeds and Liverpool Canal towpath, and the amenities and rail links in both Bingley and Keighley.

All in all, this is a cracking opportunity to get into one of the area's most desirable villages, with a home that offers far more than it might first suggest - and a garden that really does need to be seen in person.
