LOCAL HISTORY AND AREA AMENITIES

College Road is situated just off Alum Rock Road in the heart of Alum Rock, one of Birmingham's best-known and most established residential districts, approximately two miles east of Birmingham City Centre. The area has a long history dating back to the early 1700s, with the name "Alum Rock" believed to originate from mineral deposits once associated with the tanning and dye industries.

The surrounding streets around College Road were largely developed during the late Victorian and Edwardian periods, with further residential expansion taking place after both World Wars. Today, the area is known for its strong community feel, excellent local shopping facilities, diverse culture, and convenient transport connections into Birmingham City Centre.

Local Amenities

The property is ideally positioned for access to the busy Alum Rock Road shopping district, offering a wide range of supermarkets, convenience stores, cafés, restaurants, banks, pharmacies, and independent retailers.

Nearby amenities include:

Alum Rock Road Post Office

Morris Park

Ward End Park

Saltley Playground

The area is particularly well known for its vibrant food scene and multicultural shopping environment, with Alum Rock Road regarded as one of Birmingham's most established local retail destinations.

Schools & Education

There are several well-regarded schools within close proximity to the property, making the area popular with families.

Nearby schools include:

Shaw Hill Primary School

Parkfield Community School

Rockwood Academy

Nansen Primary School

St Saviour's C E Primary School

Saltley Academy

Alum Rock and the surrounding B8 district are particularly attractive to buyers seeking access to a wide selection of primary and secondary schooling options.

Transport Links

College Road benefits from excellent public transport links, with regular bus services operating along Alum Rock Road providing direct access into Birmingham City Centre and surrounding districts including Washwood Heath, Ward End, Small Heath, and Stechford.

The property is also conveniently positioned for access to:

The A47 Heartlands Parkway

Birmingham City Centre

Birmingham Airport

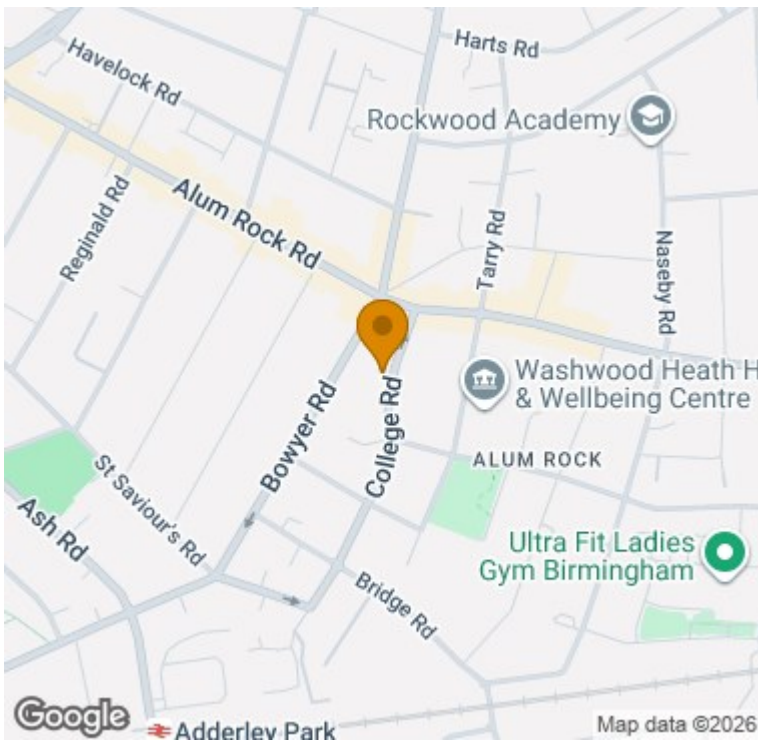

The Midlands motorway network

Nearby rail access is available from Adderley Park and other surrounding stations.

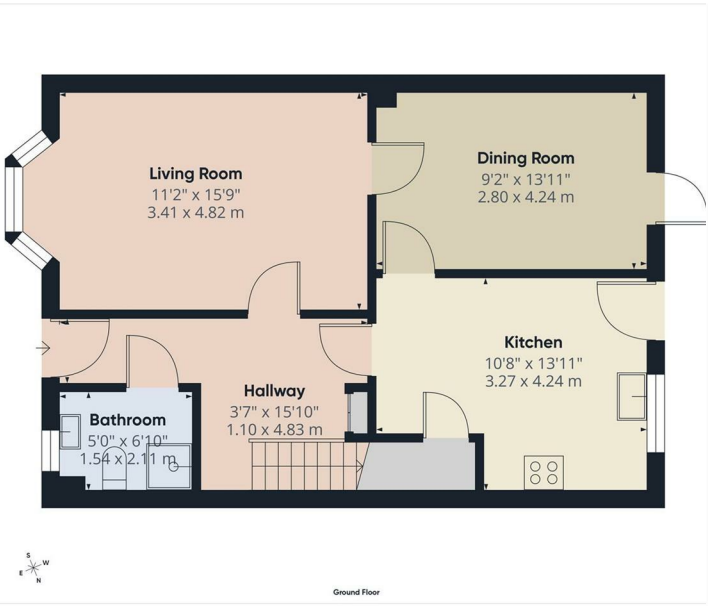

A Well-Established Birmingham Location

Alum Rock remains one of Birmingham's most historic and densely populated residential communities, combining period housing stock with excellent day-to-day amenities and strong transport connectivity. The area continues to attract owner occupiers and investors alike due to its proximity to the city centre and long-established community infrastructure.
