The Property

This recently extended and refurbished link detached home sits on a quiet development on Dartmoor. The ground floor flows well from room to room with a fresh feel throughout. The porch with plenty of space for hanging wet coats, leads to the hallway with the all important downstairs WC. The living room with a large window to the front and a cosy log burner, opens to the dining room overlooking the garden providing natural light from each end. The modern extended kitchen flows from there, with high quality fittings such as quartz work surfaces, an induction hob with concealed extractor fan, and built in double oven. There is plenty of space for an American fridge freezer and the utility room adjacent has space and plumbing for a washing machine and tumble dryer. Upstairs are three double bedrooms, one with an en-suite shower; all served by a modern family bathroom. There is access to the garage from the utility room, complete with a store just within.

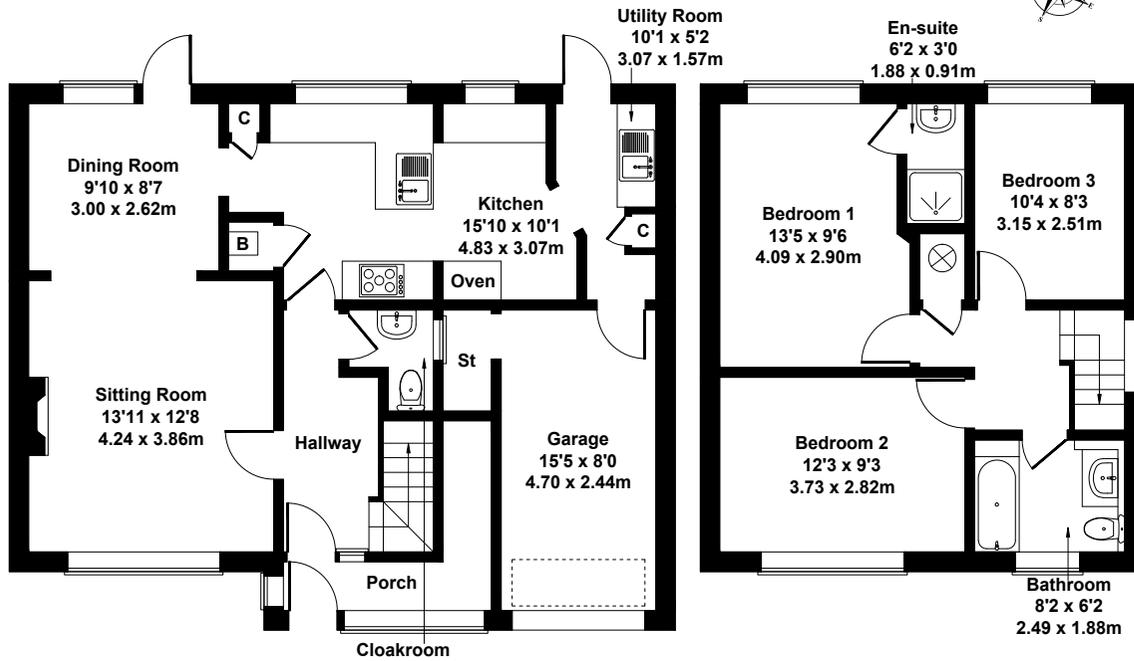

Outside

Accessed from both the dining room and the utility room, the garden is a private space with decking and patio, perfect for entertaining in the summer months. There is a Devon Bank providing colour and foliage. At the front is parking for at least three cars.

Location

The Village of Dousland is situated on Dartmoor National Park but within easy access of open moorland and also Burrator reservoir, a popular spot for walkers and cyclists. The neighbouring village of Yelverton offers a wide range of local amenities including doctors, Co-op super market, primary school and public houses as well as a variety of other local shops and a golf club. The nearby town of Tavistock and the maritime city of Plymouth are both easily accessible by car or bus.

Agents Note: Although the garden currently extends over the original railway bank, the official curtilidge is up to the Devon Bank.
