

Oaklands, Sandy Lane

A beautifully remodelled and substantially reconstructed detached family home, set within superb mature gated gardens extending to approximately one third of an acre. Finished in an elegant Scandinavian-inspired style, the property offers exceptional light-filled accommodation combining contemporary design with warm natural finishes.

The spacious interior includes an impressive entrance hall, elegant lounge, separate family room, cloakroom/WC, and a stunning open-plan dining area with a bespoke handmade kitchen by Sebastian Cox for DeVol, alongside a utility room. Underfloor heating, stone flooring, wide-plank oak floors and large aluminium-framed windows enhance the home throughout.

To the first floor are five beautifully presented bedrooms and three luxurious bathrooms, including two en suites.

Externally, electric gates open onto a gravel driveway with a double oak-framed car port, while beautifully landscaped gardens and extensive patio areas provide superb outdoor entertaining space. A recently completed outdoor kitchen and dining area beneath a covered pergola, with space for a hot tub, completes the setting.

Enjoying a peaceful position on a quiet no-through lane, the property is moments from picturesque woodland walks, yet conveniently close to Holmes Chapel, Knutsford and the renowned Three Greyhounds pub.
