LOCATION:

The picture postcard village of Plockton, known as "the Jewel of the Highlands" is located on the seaward side of Loch Carron nestled around a sheltered harbour with palm trees lining the village due to the warmer climate provided by the gulf stream. The area is an excellent base for outdoor pursuits including walking, cycling, climbing, kayaking, and sailing to name but a few. Plockton is also a world-famous tourist destination with award-winning bars and restaurants offering great local produce and entertainment year-round. Amenities include primary and secondary schooling, The National Centre of Excellence in Traditional Music is based within the secondary school, gift shops, village shop and train station. Wider facilities are available close by in Kyle of Lochalsh, approximately 6 miles away.

ACCOMMODATION:

120+ years old with more recent extensions Sannachan extends to some 114m², retaining many original features, including ledge & brace doors and decorative painted stone walls. The property benefits from being mostly double glazed and electric heating, by way of under floor heating, modern storage heaters and electric panel heaters throughout supplemented by a wood burning stove in the sitting room. This property currently has a license for use as a holiday letting property.
