Pacey Wingent Dickson are delighted to present this immaculately refurbished and beautifully presented first-floor apartment in Edenside, Bookham, featuring three good-sized bedrooms and two bathrooms.

The principal bedroom benefits from an en suite, while the remaining two bedrooms are currently arranged as a home office and guest room. The guest bedroom features built-in storage, with further storage available in the hallway.

The property features a stylish open-plan kitchen, dining, and living area, enhanced by attractive wooden flooring. Furthermore, with the large windows throughout, the apartment is flooded with natural light.

Externally, there are two lock-up units suitable for bike or bin storage. Ideally located close to Bookham town centre and Bookham train station.
