The property is accessed via an entrance vestibule leading into a hallway with stairs to the first floor. To the right-hand side is a living room featuring a fireplace and a large wood-burning stove with windows overlooking the front gardens. A door from here provides access to a convenient WC. From the rear of the living room, a door leads into a generous kitchen with stone work surfaces, integrated appliances, tiled flooring, and a central island with granite worktops. Doors from here lead into a utility with access to the rear courtyard.

The kitchen then opens into the extended, versatile garden room, which features a 'Velux' window and French doors leading out onto the rear gardens. Double doors lead into a third reception room, currently used as a dining room, which enjoys polished wood flooring, bespoke cherry wood cabinetry, a cast iron fireplace and windows overlooking the front gardens.

The stairs then lead to the first-floor landing which in turn provides access to five bedrooms. The principal bedroom is a good-sized double with an en-suite shower room and views to the south towards the village and Ogle. To the rear is a family bathroom with a separate WC, and four further bedrooms, including bedroom two with a vanity sink and views over the rear gardens.

Externally, the property occupies a generous site with a mature, well-stocked front garden, accessed via stone steps and a wrought iron pedestrian gate. The rear gardens are enclosed, excellently maintained, and include several lawned areas with well-stocked borders, raised beds, a vegetable garden with a recently installed greenhouse, and a rear annexe suitable as a garden studio, office, or home gymnasium.

The rear gate leads to a driveway providing off-street parking for four vehicles and a single garage with further storage above.
