The internal accommodation comprises: stairs leading up to the first floor and into an entrance hallway, which leads through to a central landing area providing access to all rooms.

From here, the living room is positioned to the front of the property, featuring a bay window that allows for plenty of natural light along with a fireplace. The dining room sits separately and also benefits from good natural light, a fireplace, and built-in storage within the chimney breast, creating a practical and well-proportioned space for dining.

The kitchen is fitted with a range of modern wall and base units, with work surfaces, a gas hob, oven with extractor above, and space for informal dining or breakfast seating. To the rear, an inner hallway provides access to the bathroom, fitted with tiled walls and flooring, a bath with a shower over, a wash hand basin, and a WC, along with an external door leading out of the property.

There are two bedrooms, both of which are well-sized and enjoy good levels of natural light, positioned off the central hallway for convenience.

Externally, there is a low-maintenance rear garden area.
