Cotteridge, Birmingham, B30 1PD

Asking Price £310,000

A Funky and Spacious Four-Bedroom Home Over Three Floors This stylish terraced house offers plenty of room for modern family life, spread out across three well-designed storeys. It's got the space you need, the look you'll love, and a location that makes day-to-day living easy. Set in Cotteridge, right on the edge of Bournville, the home is perfectly placed for well-regarded schools including Kings Norton Girls' and King Edward VI Boys'. Cotteridge and Rowheath Parks are close by, giving you green space on the doorstep, while Cotteridge Village offers everyday shopping, cafés and local amenities.

A short walk or cycle takes you into Stirchley Village — one of Birmingham's most exciting suburbs, full of independent bars, coffee shops and restaurants. For commuters, Kings Norton and Bournville train stations are nearby, offering straightforward links into Birmingham City Centre. The University of Birmingham, Cadbury's Bournville site, and local hospitals such as the Queen Elizabeth and Royal Orthopaedic are also easy to get to, making this a really well-connected spot.

This is a great house with off road parking, four bedrooms and is ready to go! To book your viewing please call our Bournville sales office.
