DETAILS

A beautifully presented two-bedroom first floor retirement apartment for the over 60s, situated within the prestigious Brueton Place development. This luxury apartment benefits from underfloor heating throughout and a private walk-out balcony.

The welcoming entrance hall features a wall-mounted video door entry system and a 24-hour emergency intercom, providing added peace of mind. The bright and spacious living room enjoys French doors opening onto a private balcony with pleasant outlooks. The modern, fully fitted kitchen offers a range of contemporary units with integrated appliances, including a fridge/freezer, oven with matching microwave above, and an induction hob.

The principal bedroom is a generous double with fitted storage and a stylish en suite bathroom comprising a modern white suite with low-level bath, shower over and safety rails, WC and vanity wash basin. The second bedroom is also a well-proportioned double, ideal for guests or as a study or hobby room. In addition, there is a spacious double-width walk-in shower room with sliding doors, WC and vanity unit with inset wash hand basin.

Brueton Place offers independent living within a premium retirement setting, perfect for those looking to downsize without compromising on comfort or lifestyle. Designed for ease of living, the development benefits from wide corridors and lift access to all floors. Residents enjoy the flexibility of independent living with the reassurance of support if circumstances change, requiring only the standard legal notice period — an ideal next step offering security, comfort and community in an exceptional setting.

Allocated parking for one car & visitor spaces.
