No amount of expense was spared when each of these super-lovely retirement apartments were created in 2010.

This stylish two-bedroom example is on the ground floor of the visually stunning and extremely well managed former Kirby College development, and it comes with a long lease, beautifully kept communal spaces, both inside and out, security intercom system, residents and visitor's car parking spaces and a staircase and lift to all floors. It is a simple chain free sale and features central heating with a combi boiler and security alarm system.

Location wise, this has such a lot going for it. Walk to Roman Road shops in under five minutes and Linthorpe Village shops, pubs and restaurants in around 15. There is a reliable and regular bus service directly outside taking you into Middlesbrough centre.

Very briefly, the accommodation comprises communal entrance hall, private entrance hall, 18ft lounge/diner with French doors, a well-equipped kitchen with good looking modern units and built in appliances, two bedrooms and bathroom with a modern white four piece suite.
