Imagine collecting a morning coffee in Hartburn Village, enjoying peaceful walks through nearby green spaces before returning to a home where every room has already been beautifully finished. No builders, no decorating, no unexpected costs—simply unpack, settle in and start enjoying life from day one.

Occupying a generous plot in one of Stockton's most sought-after residential locations, this beautifully refurbished, family-sized, semi-detached bungalow combines the ease of single-level living with the reassurance of a comprehensive renovation. Every major improvement has already been completed, including a stunning new kitchen, luxurious new bathroom, complete rewire, replacement heating system, new double glazing, new flooring throughout, fresh plastering, contemporary décor and a stylish new front door. The result is a home that feels fresh, modern and ready for its next chapter.

Flooded with natural light, the spacious reception hall sets the tone, leading into a generous lounge where large windows create a bright and welcoming atmosphere. The contemporary kitchen provides an inviting space to cook, dine and entertain, while enjoying views across the beautifully sized rear garden.

Outside, the lifestyle continues. The substantial rear garden, complete with mature fruit trees, offers endless opportunities for gardening enthusiasts, family gatherings or simply enjoying the sunshine in complete privacy. A tandem double-length garage and driveway provide exceptional storage and parking, ideal for those needing workshop space or secure parking for multiple vehicles.

Hartburn continues to be one of the area's most desirable places to call home, offering an established community, excellent schools, independent shops, cafés, everyday amenities and superb transport links, all while retaining its peaceful residential feel.

With no onward chain, this is a rare opportunity to secure a beautifully renovated bungalow where all the hard work has already been done. Simply turn the key, unpack your belongings and start enjoying the lifestyle you've been looking for.
