DESCRIPTION

Swaledale is a charming and characterful home featuring a number of distinctive period details, including an oak 'Mouseman' front door which opens into an elegant oak-panelled reception hallway. The hallway features a staircase with a wrought iron balustrade rising to the first floor.

The sitting room enjoys a bay window to the front elevation, complemented by two hexagonal stained glass windows to the side. A marble fireplace with inset fire and exposed ceiling beams create a warm and inviting atmosphere. The dining room also benefits from a bay window to the front, allowing for excellent natural light, and features two further decorative stained glass windows to the side.

A third reception room offers versatile accommodation and could alternatively be used as a ground floor bedroom if required. This room features full-length glazed windows providing access to the garden room and is conveniently located adjacent to the ground floor bathroom, which is fitted with a suite comprising a bath with mains-fed shower over, wash hand basin and WC.

The well-proportioned breakfast kitchen is fitted with a range of oak wall and base units and includes a freestanding oven, fridge freezer and an integrated dishwasher. A doorway leads through to the garden room, which spans the full width of the property and provides both a personal door and patio doors opening onto the rear garden, as well as access to the attached garage. The garden room also incorporates a practical utility area with sink, plumbing for a washing machine and the gas central heating boiler, together with a separate WC and a useful storage shed.

To the first floor, a spacious part-galleried landing with airing cupboard provides access to two generous double bedrooms. Both bedrooms enjoy views over the neighbouring school fields and benefit from built-in wardrobes and under-eaves storage. The principal bedroom also features an en-suite shower room fitted with a mains thermostatic shower within a quadrant cubicle.

Externally, the property stands within attractive gardens to both the front and rear. The front garden is laid mainly to lawn with borders well stocked with a variety of mature plants and shrubs. A resin driveway provides ample off-street parking, with additional space to the side which may be suitable for a leisure vehicle. The attached single garage features a timber up-and-over door, three windows, and benefits from power and lighting.

The rear garden includes a lawned area and a mature privet hedge providing a high degree of privacy. There are two sun terraces, a wrought iron gate to the side of the garden and a timber garden shed.

Viewing is highly recommended to fully appreciate the character, features and setting of this delightful

LOCATION

Situated within the popular market town of Northallerton, within walking distance of all the facilities and amenities the town has to offer.
