Description:

Set within approximately two acres of grounds in the highly sought-after rural hamlet of Fairfield, Bromsgrove, this substantial six-bedroom barn conversion offers an exceptional blend of character, space and versatility. Lovingly converted by the current owners in 1998, the property showcases a unique and thoughtful design while retaining a wealth of original features, including exposed beams and vaulted elements that reflect its agricultural heritage.

The accommodation is both generous and flexible, making it ideally suited to family life or multi-generational living. At the heart of the home, the dining room flows seamlessly into the lounge, creating an inviting and sociable living space, further enhanced by a feature mezzanine balcony that overlooks the room and connects to the upper floor. The ground floor also provides a variety of reception spaces, a kitchen/diner, utility and boot room, ground floor shower room, WC, and a further bedroom or study, offering excellent adaptability for a range of living requirements.

The first floor is thoughtfully arranged across two separate landings. One landing serves the principal bedroom with en-suite, alongside the house bathroom and two further bedrooms, while the second landing gives access to three additional bedrooms and a further bathroom, making this an ideal layout for larger families or visiting guests.

Externally, the property continues to impress. A sweeping driveway provides extensive parking for multiple vehicles and leads to a range of substantial outbuildings offering exceptional potential. Of particular note is a brick-built store with loft space, presenting a superb opportunity for conversion into additional living accommodation or a self-contained annexe (subject to the necessary consents). In addition, there is a generous former piggery, a garage/workshop, and a further detached garage/store. Collectively, these buildings offer exciting possibilities for a variety of uses, including workshops, storage, stabling for horses or further conversion.

To the rear, the property enjoys a private and landscaped garden, laid mainly to lawn with paved patio areas and timber decking, ideal for outdoor entertaining. Beyond the garden lies a large gated paddock, extending to a mature tree-lined boundary with open countryside beyond, providing a wonderful sense of space, privacy and connection to the surrounding landscape.

The property benefits from being connected to all mains services, including mains gas, water and drainage, a rare and valuable feature for a rural home of this nature.

Despite its peaceful countryside setting, the location remains conveniently placed for local amenities, well-regarded schools and excellent transport links, offering the perfect balance between rural living and everyday accessibility.

A truly individual home of scale and character, offering significant potential and an enviable setting in one of Bromsgrove's most desirable rural locations.

Estate Agents are required by law to conduct anti-money laundering checks on all those buying a property. We have partnered with a third party supplier to undertake these who will contact you once you have had an offer accepted on a property you wish to buy. The cost of these checks is £39 + VAT per buyer and this is a non-refundable fee. These charges cover the cost of obtaining relevant data, any manual checks and monitoring which might be required. This fee will need to be paid and the checks completed in advance of the issuing of a memorandum of sale on the property you would like to buy.
