Full Description

Situated within a popular and well-regarded development on the outskirts of High Wycombe, this impressive four-bedroom town house offers flexible and spacious accommodation arranged over three thoughtfully designed floors. Ideally positioned for access to the highly sought-after villages of Widmer End and Hazlemere, the property combines modern living with a semi-rural Buckinghamshire setting.

The ground floor provides a welcoming entrance hall with useful storage and access to the main living areas. A versatile study offers flexibility for use as a bedroom or family room while the kitchen/dining space is ideal for both everyday living and entertaining, featuring ample storage, worktop space. The Living area has ample space for seating with direct access to the rear garden.

Arranged across the upper floors are four well-proportioned bedrooms, offering adaptable accommodation for families, professionals, or those seeking space to work from home. The principal bedroom benefits from generous proportions, while the remaining bedrooms are served by two modern bathrooms, finished to a contemporary standard and designed to accommodate busy households with ease.

Externally, the property enjoys a landscaped rear garden, providing a private and attractive outdoor space ideal for relaxation, entertaining, or family use. To the front and side, the home further benefits from three parking spaces, a rare and valuable feature for a property of this type.

Located within easy reach of local schools, amenities, countryside walks, and transport links into High Wycombe and beyond, this superb town house offers a wonderful balance of space, convenience, and lifestyle appeal. An excellent opportunity for buyers seeking a modern home in a thriving and desirable Buckinghamshire location.
